Decorate the Place Where Babies Come From.

Commemorate your newest addition with a Touro Baby Tile in our Family Birthing Center.

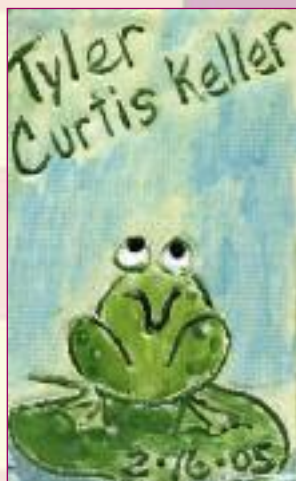

Touro is more than just a hospital, we are the place where babies come from!

The Family Birthing Center has delivered generations of New Orleans families and is proud to welcome the newest member of your family.

The Baby Wall is a colorful collection of ceramic tiles on permanent display located in the main foyer of the Family Birthing Center at Touro. The wall features personalized tiles displaying your child's name and date of birth for new parents, families and staff to enjoy.

The Baby Wall represents a meaningful way for proud parents, grandparents, family and friends to celebrate the special Touro babies in their lives. Each tile represents a minimum $100 donation. The funds raised from the Baby Wall will allow the Family Birthing Center to help many babies in the future and provide exceptional healthcare for families in our community.

Touro partnered with a local artist, Mary Joan Toca-Castanza to design one-of-a-kind ceramic tiles. Each tile is hand made and painted and is a unique work of art—just like your baby!

About the artist...Mary Joan Toca-Castanza

After a career spent in education, four daughters, four stepsons and seven grandchildren later, Mary Joan returned to her true passion, art, and started Posh Paint Pub.

Mary Joan brings a special love to the baby tiles she created for Touro. "These tiles are unique, just like all of us," Mary Joan says.

Baby Tiles are hung in the Family Birthing Center corridor.
