JOKES

Old Jokes for Old Folks Giggles for Geezers

A fine old fellow fell in love with a lovely lady at this retirement center. He managed to get down on his knees in front of her, looked up, and said there were two very important things he needed to ask her. She smiled, sure she knew the first question, but wondering what the second question was. "Okay, dear," she replied.

He asked her the hoped for question, "Shirley, will you marry me?" "Yes, Harvey, I will! Now what is the second question?" she asked.

He replied, "Will you go get someone to help me up?"

INFORMATION, RESTAURANTS AND OUTINGS FOR AUGUST

Please welcome the new residents Marie and Charmaine.

Woldenberg Village A Touro Retirement Community

Welcome Marie from San Diego

Please welcome Marie Sauer, a NJ native who moved to Woldenberg from San Diego where she lived for 37 years. She has a daughter who is married in San Diego with a teenager (13). Her son Mark retired as a Lt. Colonel in the Marine Corps and now is a helicopter pilot for the Sheriff's Office in Plaquemines Parish. Mark and Jaime have a daughter (11) and 2 sons (9, 6) in Belle Chasse. Jaime, who is an instructor/trainer at the Y, is a big help to Marie, taking her to "make groceries" and to doctor and hair salon appointments.

As many know, it is difficult to move to a new state, leaving all friends behind and starting over in later life. Marie also had to leave her beloved 13 year old dog, a Weimaraner named Shatzie which means "sweetheart" in German. Marie loves stenciling (furniture, walls, and shirts) and attending live shows. She also enjoys playing mahjong so much that she began playing with our Monday group before she even moved in! Please introduce yourself, and make Marie feel at home.

"Blessed to be at Woldenberg"

Charmaine Prevost is grateful to be at Woldenberg which she compares to a Retreat Center. She is the second oldest of 5 daughters and has always been single. She says her children are those she taught in public and parochial schools for 37 years before retiring at age 62. Charmaine moved in with her sister Jeanne just before her stroke. As she was recovering from the stroke, she fell and broke her hip in June. She has made excellent progress in recovering from the hip fracture which required 3 screws. Perhaps her ability to quickly recover springs from a physically active lifestyle which included her long career as a physical education teacher and coach of most sports. She also was a competitive tennis player and a well-known Grand Marshall for many second-lines. Charmaine grew up in the Seventh Ward of New Orleans and graduated from Dillard University. During Katrina, she was teaching at Xavier Prep which did not flood, so she was able to keep working without
