Old night owls never die, they just don't give a hoot if they get out anymore.

"Age is a very high price to pay for maturity"
—Tom Stoppard.

Two elderly men were sunning themselves in Palm Springs when they started a friendly conversation.

"I was able to move here to retire in Palm Springs after my business burned to the ground," one man said. "The insurance payment sure came in handy."

The other replied, "I'm here living on an insurance payout from when my factory was flooded out."

The first man pondered for a few seconds and then asked, "How do you start a flood?"

The United States Military is made up of five armed service branches- the Air Force, Army, Coast Guard, Marine Corps, and Navy. Employees of the Military are categorized as active duty (full time), reserve and guard forces (maintain civilian jobs but can be called to full time if needed), and veterans and retirees (past members).

The US Military employs the use of several different robots for combat situations, such as for scoping for traps, carrying heavy gear, searching for survivors, underwater diving, carrying victims to safety, and combat with enemies. Drones are a very popular device currently used by the military, which are remotely controlled aircraft that carry high-grade cameras, bombs, or missiles.

BOOK READING AND CLUB

Starting in mid-May, the Villas will have a group to listen to an audio book chosen by residents who plan to participate. The group will meet once a week for 45 minutes of reading followed by a brief discussion of book content.

The chosen book will be read in its entirety during the classes, so there is no need to purchase the chosen book.

If you are interested in being in this book club, please contact Laura in the activities office to vote on which of the following books you would like to listen to:

The Keeper of Lost Things (Fiction, 8.5 hours): A charming, clever, and quietly moving debut novel of endless possibilities and joyful discoveries that explores the promises we make and break, losing and finding ourselves, the objects that hold magic and meaning for our lives, and the surprising connections that bind us.

An American Marriage (Fiction, 9 hours): An American Marriage is a masterpiece of storytelling, an intimate look deep into the souls of people who must reckon with the past while moving forward - with hope and pain - into the future. Newlyweds Celestial and Roy are the embodiment of both the American Dream and the New South.

I'll Be Gone in the Dark (Nonfiction, 10 hours): I'll Be Gone in the Dark allows readers a rare glimpse into the extensive research behind the Golden State Killer investigation, while also diving into the psyche of the late author's obsession with this crime and the mind behind it.

My First Summer in the Sierra (Nonfiction, 7 hours): My First Summer in the Sierra incorporates the lyrical accounts and sketches Muir produced during his four-month stay in the Yosemite River Valley and the High Sierra in the summer of 1869. His daily records track his memorable experiences, describing in picturesque terms the majestic vistas, flora and fauna, and other breathtaking natural wonders of the area.
